

VICE PRESIDENT SAMIA TO GRACE 7TH AFRICAN HEALTH SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE IN DAR ES SALAAM

VC President Samia Suluhu Hassan is expected to grace the official opening of the 7th East African Health and Scientific Conference (EAHSC) in Dar es Salaam today. The biannual event, which is the 7th in the series, is being held under the theme: “Technology for health system transformation and attainment of the UN-Sustainable development goals”

The EAHSC bring together stakeholders from the health sector within the EAC namely EAC organs and Institutions ,EAC Partner, states ministries of health, finance, higher education, Science and Technology, Member of parliaments from National assemblies, government officials, researchers, Scientists, Practitioners Civil Society, Media, Donors and development partners and the public at large.

Addressing journalists in media briefing ahead of the conference, the executive secretary of the East African Health Research Commission, Prof. Gibson Sammy Kibiki, said the EAHSC contributes towards strengthening regional cooperation in Health in line with Article 118 of the treaty for the establishment of EAC as well as other relevant provision of the EAC common market protocol.

During the conference several initiatives will be launched including Digital Research strategic plan, web portal, young East African Health Research Scientists forum, East African government leaders, legislators and legal executive forum, 6th EAHSC Report and the book of abstracts on digital health in East Africa among other activities.

Alongside the conference, there will be an international health exhibition which will be participated by Research institutions, health care facilities, medical/health academic institutions, medical and pharmacy industries, NGOs, Ministries, EAC organs and institutions, international organizations, UN agencies WHO, UNICEF, UNFPA, UNESCO will show their services and products.

The Gurdian Newspaper 27/march/2019