

International Conference on the Role of Religious Leaders in Achieving Global Sustainable Development

An online international conference entitled “The Role of Religious Leaders in Achieving Global Sustainable Development of the World” was organized by the Nazarbayev Center for Development of Interfaith and Inter-Civilization Dialogue on 18 May 2022, prior to the upcoming VII Congress of the Leaders of World and Traditional Religions.

This international conference was attended by Egizbayev, Deputy Minister of Information and Social Development of the Republic of Kazakhstan; B. Sersinbayev, Chairman of the Nazarbayev Center, Nazir Mohammad Nazir, Secretary General of the Al-Azhar Academy of Islamic Studies; Monsignor Khaled Akashe, Head of the Bureau of Islamic Affairs of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue, (Vatican); Majid Abdulaziz Al-Turki, Director of the Russian-Arabic Research and Information Center; Zahra Rashidbeygi, Head of department for Dialogue between Islam and Orthodox and Protestant Churches, Center for Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue of the Islamic Culture and Relations Organization of Iran; Mahmud Erol Kılıç., the Director of IRCICA; and Yuri Novgorodov, the Archbishop of the Lutheran Church of Kazakhstan.

In this international conference, participants discussed the importance of interaction among the leaders of world and traditional religious with regard to efforts towards sustainable peace and development as well as the ways strengthening of the existing cooperation.