

Closing Ceremony of the Sixteenth Asian Film Festival the Third Eye

The closing ceremony of the sixteenth Asian Film Festival the Third Eye on December 28 at the Ravindra Mini Auditorium (located at Dadar district of western Mumbai) with the presence of the Minister of Culture of Maharashtra, a cultural affiliate of the Islamic Republic of Iran, a cultural expert from the Culture and Communication Organization, Asian Film a few of the officials, directors and a large number of art enthusiasts from the seventh that have attended.

By the end of the event “Mr. Shantaram” the Managing Director of the Asian film Institute will share his thoughts and welcome the representative of the Minister of Culture of the Maharashtra state, a cultural affiliate of the Islamic Republic of Iran said, “I am very grateful to all those who have attended, the Cultural Community and especially the dependence of J.A. Iran in Mumbai Metropolitan for the active participation in this festival.”

Referring to the goals of the Asian Film Institute, he added, “It is the only festival that has been working to promote Asian films and unknown directors and hopes that the festival will praise and encourage them to become the platform for their success in the seventh art industry.”

After him, the representative of the Minister of the Culture of the Maharashtra State Government, welcomed the festival and said, “The Mumbai Metropolitan Area of Maharashtra state has a good place in the Cinema Industry, with the presence of the Bollywood Cinema and we hope directors with creative ideas using all capacities will strengthen India’s Cinematic Industry.”

Referring to the Iranian Cinema industry, he stated, “the Iranian Cinema Industry has been able to improve its position in recent years and this has been done by the skilled writers and creative and successful directors using modern ideas.”

Referring to the long history of relations between Iran and India, he said, “culture and cultural ties between Iran and India are rooted in the ancient relationship between the two countries with civilization in the East; and I am very pleased today that I was able to meet the Iranian representative and I hope that in the future we will see the presence of Iranian films in all festivals.

The Third Eye Festival is one of the most prestigious international film festivals in India and more than fifty films compete in long and short films from different countries each year such as India, Iran, Korea and Japan. The sixteenth edition of the festival was held from December 7 to December 30 2017 in Mumbai Metropolis.

In the course of the festival, the movie Night of the Birth directed by Mr. Omid Shams and the, movie Award directed by Ms. Azar Faramarzi were able to reach the first and second positions in the short films respectively. The cultural affiliate of J.A Iran, received the awards on behalf of Mr. Omid Shams for the best short film and on behalf of Ms. Azar Faramarzi for the second prize.

Mr. Omid Shams was born in the year 1990 and director of the movie Night of the Birth, which is one of his successful works amongst the works he has done. This film is the story of two friends and partners who go to their home on their birthday after finishing their work outside of the city to hold their birthday party. But on the way back on the outskirts of the city an accident happens to be waiting for them to get them know each other better.

Ms. Azar Faramarzi, who won the second prize of the festival, is one of the filmmakers and actor in our country who has graduated in film and film from India as well as Iran. She is a member of the Young Cinema Association and a graduate of the University of Art and Culture. She has been featured as a cast in several films, and five short films (loneliness, Orange Clothes, Anonymous, Appreciation and Memorabilia) and three documentaries (Snowy, Holy and West Berlin), which has been honoured at various festivals in the world. She has won the 2015 San Francisco Film Festival and the Dhaka Award in 2016. She has also been the referee for Indian, Dhaka and San Francisco festivals.

Monday, 11 December 2017 / Issue: 695034 / Show: 19 – 10:03