

Rev. Prof. Dr. Ioan Sauca

The Honorable Interim General Secretary of the World Council of Churches

Dear Rev. Sauca,

As Your Reverend knows, Ms. Shereen Abu Aqleh, the Palestinian Christian journalist, was recently - and in violation of all known international laws and established moral principles and, of course, contrary to all the values of the divine religions - murdered in the Holy Land in a completely wicked manner, and even her funeral ceremony was desecrated (may God place her in heaven).

While expressing its deep regret over such tragic events, the Center for Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue expresses its condolences to the family of Ms. Abu Aqleh and his oppressed Palestinian compatriots, and also to all the religious and freedom-loving people of the world, especially Christians, who share this grief.

This center strongly condemns this heinous crime. Undoubtedly, condemning the perpetrators of such events and other aggressors and oppressors as well as defending the cause of Shereen Abu Aqleh and her compatriots and other oppressed and deprived people is a sign of devotion to God.

By praying to God Almighty, we appeal to Him for the reduction of the innumerable sufferings of human beings.

Aliakbar Ziaei

Head of the Center for Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue
