BRIEF BIO:

I am a 29-year old journalist from Kashmir (India) presently based in Tehran. I have worked as a reporter, freelancer and editor with global news organizations for more than 8 years.

I am presently working as an independent journalist in Tehran since more than a year. I am associated with Iran's leading English-language newspaper Tehran Times and Mehr News Agency and some foreign media outlets like Anadolu News Agency (Turkey) and Huffington Post (India). I am also pursuing my MPhil studies in History of Islam from Ahlulbayt International University, Tehran.

I previously worked in Afghanistan as chief editor of Afghan Zariza magazine for two years and before that in New Delhi as senior correspondent with Hindustan Times for almost five years. In Afghanistan, I also reported for many foreign newspapers and news channels.

My work has featured in news publications across the world, including Al Jazeera English, Huffington Post, Asia Times, The Times of India, Hindustan Times, The Daily Times, Press TV, IRIB, Mehr News Agency, Tehran Times, Anadolu News Agency, Greater Kashmir etc.

I have also been associated with Iran-based Urdu news channel Sahar TV as analyst from New Delhi and Kabul and appeared on BBC World, NPR, ABC, WION, WIN etc.
