WORK EXPERIENCE PROFILE

3)

- I worked as a sales clerk Officer for a period of two years (Jan2005 – Dec 2001007)

Reporting to the managing director and performed the following duties;

- I was assigned the responsibility of compiling and analysing sales. My Analysis reports were used by management to design a more attractive sales and marketing strategies. This Translated to an increase in sales of the company's products and improved profile

I was able to achieve all the above because of my competencies in the following areas.

- Commitment to results:

I take responsibility for delivering commitments reliably by ensuring that end results are achieved, makes suggestions for continuous improvements by finding positive ways to change the way things are done.

- Team player

I pride myself of being a team player because I set clear goals and provide direction for others and motivate others to make maximum contribution by building effective working relationships. I am able to achieve this because of my good communication skills interpersonal relationships.

- Problem solving ability:

My analysis and Intellectual penetration make me able to think objectively. I am able to weigh up information to arrive at sound conclusions. My creativity allows me generate new ideas and possibilities.

- Strategic Awareness

I clearly understand and utilize diversity in terms of culture, skills and style. This makes me easily adapt creatively and effectively to changing needs.

I have the ability to look at the business environment in a broader perspective and explore any available opportunities.

Health is key and being a health reporter, I understand the need of the minority who can't access hospitals and the need to traditional medicine.

Am an advocate of culture norms, hence the love to learn and explore different cultures not only in Uganda?

Currently

Am working with NBS Television, of which it's now four years since I started working in November 2011.

Am a senior, news reporter, in health and current affairs, ambassador in embassy relations reporting, good in magazine stories, trainer and good in voice editing, translations from English to luganda, as a national language for now?

With the above level of exposure and experience coupled with the competencies mentioned above, I strongly believe that I am able to work under minimum supervision and strict deadlines and still achieve the organization goals and objectives.

I do have interest in reporting peace and conflicts fields too as well as religious stories that benefit the society.

Way Forward

Am looking forward at the international level to explore my carrier and experience, trainings in war torn areas as an addition to my master's degree in peace and conflict studies, as well as further my education to the PHD level.

Reporting and writing feature stories ,in all fields gets me close to the society ,hence creating an impact that saves and informs them the true about anything they love to here.
