

The Chronology of the Art of Ding Ha

1923

Ding Ha was born in Shanghai on August 17th 1923 (July 6th 1923, in Chinese lunar calendar). His original name was Bixing Ha. He changed his name after he started his road of art.

Ha's grandfather Shaofu Ha lived from 1856 to 1934. He came from Nanjing and was the son of a great businessman in Shanghai. Shaofu Ha was also an important figure of the Hui ethnic group and famous for his huge collection of calligraphy, drawings, paintings and antiques in Shanghai. After Changshuo Wu, the first director of Xiling Seal Art Society, passed away in 1927, Shaofu Ha was elected to be the second director of Xiling Seal Art Society.

1930-1936 7-13 years old

When Ding Ha was seven, he went to the Shang Xian Tang Elementary School and then transferred to Dun Hua Elementary School which was founded by his grandfather and he learned Chinese painting from his father.

1936-1942 13-19 years old

Ha went to Province-founded Shanghai Middle School and then got transferred to Da Cheng Middle School.

In 1942 19 years old

Ha was admitted to Dong Wu University (Shanghai Campus), but later dropped out due to financial difficulty.

1942-1947 19-24 years old

Ha went to Chong Ren Studio and studied oil painting from Chongren Zhang and then became his assistant teacher.

1943 20 years old

Ha's watercolor painting was awarded a grade A prize in the first art exhibition by the YMCA of Shanghai.

1946 23 years old

Ha was later hired as an instructor at the art studio of National Jiaotong University.

1947 24 years old

Ha's oil painting Spring entered the annual competition of Zhong Zheng Culture of Art.

The art history of Ding Ha was included in the Biography of Artists (1947) in the Yearbook of Shanghai Art.

Many of his sketches and watercolor paintings were recorded in the painting catalog of the Yearbook of Shanghai Art.

1948 25 years old

Ha was recruited as an art teacher at Aurora Girl's Middle School (now Xiang Ming Middle School) in 1948.

1948-1949 25-26 years old

Due to financial difficulty, Ha often drew portraits for American soldiers at dance clubs and cafes. In the meantime, he became a famous young portraitist in Shanghai for his custom-made portrait business listed at Yong An Company at Nanjing Road and Da Xing Company.

1949 26 years old

After Shanghai was liberated in May, the orders for landscapes and portraits decreased and he painted the portraits of national leaders for a while.

1950 27 years old

Ha started running an art studio for the first time. The first students were Jieyin Wang, Ka Pang, Lianbao Dong among others.

1952 29 years old

According to the regulation set by the State Council, departments of schools needed to be reorganized. Shanghai School of Fine Arts and Suzhou School of Fine Arts Shanghai Campus were relocated somewhere else, leaving Shanghai with no professional schools of art. With the encouragement of the Culture Administration, Ha planned to open a formal art studio to nurture the badly needed talents in art.

1953 30 years old

On May 12th 1953, Ha married Wenqi Zhang and got registration of marriage at the Municipal Government in Xincheng District, Shanghai.

On June 10th, he received a license from the Cultural Businesses Administration and the art studio of Ding Ha was officially founded at 153 Xuqing Road, Xuhui District. In the same year, the book named Learning Materials for Watercolor Painting, which was co-authored by Ding Ha and Yongsen Li, was published by the People's Fine Arts Press.

1954 31 years old

How to: Portrait was published by Shanghai Cultural Publication Press.

He took 10 plus students to Haitong Aluminum Factory where Lianbao Dong worked at to paint and to experience the local life. During this time, The Boiler Firemen made with charcoal pencil and light color was created.

1955-1956 32-33 years old

He took 10 plus students to a rural cooperatives and a steel roll factory in Zhudi Town to paint and to experience the local life.

How to: Portrait Painting was overwhelmingly popular so its new edition was republished in December 1956. In the following 18 months, it was reprinted for 6 more times with a total number of 159,000 copies.

1957 34 years old

Ha became a member of China Artists' Association (Shanghai Branch)

The Communist Party called "To Bring culture and art to rural areas". To answer to it, Ding Ha went to rural areas to gain life experience and he had achieved great results. 6 pictures from Ding Ha Studio were selected and entered the National Exhibition of Young Artists and this made Ha's studio the biggest provider in Shanghai.

How to: Pencil Drawing was published by Shanghai Cultural Publication Press in June 1957 and the book was reprinted for 4 more times in the following year with a total number of 125,000 copies.

The oil painting The Train of Children was published by the monthly magazine The Bud, and the watercolor painting Herding Ducks was selected to The Art Exhibition of the World Youth, which was held in the Former Soviet Union and this news was later published by The People's Daily.

1958 35 years old

The main watercolor paintings during this time were By the Huangpu River and Research and etc.

1959 36 years old

The oil painting Research was published by Shanghai People's Press

August 1960 - July 1963 37 to 40 years old

Ha was hired as a lecturer of fundamental courses at Shanghai School of Fine Arts. He taught watercolor painting for preparatory students, sketch for college student and are creation for secondary school students. During the time, he took students to rural areas or factories and he made great achievement by laboring, teaching and creating.

1960 37 years old

The watercolor painting Morning at the Huangpu River and By the Huangpu River were displayed on the National Exhibition of Watercolor Painting. And the watercolor painting The Bridge by Chenghuang Temple was collected by the National Art Museum of China.

1961 38 years old

The main watercolor paintings: The Bund in Rain and The City in Summer

1962 39 years old

Ha attended a forum on watercolor painting in Beijing and discussed the development of water painting in China with 17 other watercolor artists such as Meisun Zhang, Yongsen Li, Fengmian Lin, Sitong Pan, Jianchen Li, Chongren Zhang, Shufang Xiao, Mingti Fan and Guanzhong Wu and etc.

1963 40 years old

Ha joined the China Artists' Associations at the recommendation of Shanghai Artists' Association.

The oil painting Ruijin Bridge and 7 other paintings were selected for the Shanghai

Oil Painting Exhibition held in Hong Kong.

Shanghai School of Fine Arts stopped recruiting new students and started to reduce the number of teachers. Due to his established reputation, Ha was asked to leave the school and reopen his studio with the purpose of sharing the “burden of the country”

The watercolor painting “The Hearts of Workers” was published by Jiefang Daily.

1964 41 years old

His book The Skills of Watercolor Painting was published by Shanghai People's Art Press (the book was published for the first time with a total number of 35,000 copies). This book includes Ha's article How to: Draw Streets Scenery and his watercolor painting The City in Summer.

1966-1976 43-53 years old

Ha was labeled as a typical case of “capitalist” in the art circle of Shanghai during the Cultural Revolution. After the crazy destruction done by the “Red Guard”, Ha's studio was closed and he had been brutally criticized and tortured by the “rebels”. Without the financial support from his studio, Ha had to make his hard living by doing labor at Shanghai No.1 Wheel Factory, Qibao Wine Factory, Shanghai Tobacco factory and Yimin Food Factory.

October 1976 53 years old

The Cultural Revolution ended and Ha created the oil painting Chrysanthemum which was bright in color and unrestrained in brushwork. It represented the delight and happiness that Ha had and his ambition for the future.

In 1978, when he was 55 years old, he worked as a full time painter in Shanghai Painting and Calligraphy Academy.

1978 55 years old

Ha was hired as a professional painter at Shanghai Academy of Painting in July.

1979 56 years old

In this year, Ha spent a month at the fishing port in Shenjiamen. His watercolor painting Aspirations was selected for the Exhibition of Portraits Paintings Collected from six provinces and one directly administered city in 1979.

1980 57 years old

Ha spent 50 days at the construction site at the Gezhou Dam and later the watercolor painting Gezhou Dam In Rain and The Construction Site of Gezhou Dam were published on the 10th volume of The Art magazine that year and the watercolor painting The Fishing Port in Shenjiamen was selected for the Exhibition of Portraits Paintings Collected from six provinces and one directly administered city in 1980.

1981 58 years old

Ha spent a month for painting from nature in Guangxi Province.

In the same year, the watercolor painting The Construction Site of Gezhou Dam was published by Takung Newspaper.

1982 59 years old

Ha spent a month for painting from nature on the prairies in Inner Mongolia.

His writing How to: Watercolor Painting was published on China Youth Daily.

The Picture Album of Ding Ha's Watercolor Painting was published by Ethnic Solidarity.

Ding Ha's Watercolor Paintings was published on the 4th volume of Guangxi Pictorial Magazine.

The watercolor painting Grass, Flowers and Vase was published by Shanghai People's Art Press.

1983 60 years old

Invited by the Literary Federation and Artists' Association in Tibet Autonomous Region, Ha went to Tibet for paintings from nature. Furthermore, in order to teach local talents, he held art training classes.

On January 1st 1983, Wen Hui Daily highly regarded and made an undersigned comment on his watercolor painting New Year for New Stories, which was created in 1963.

On July 5th, Beijing Review published three of his sketches made in Inner Mongolia.

On September 5th, Inner Mongolian Workers published Talking about My Watercolor Painting "Busy Morning" and this picture was published on the back cover.

The 9th volume of People's Pictorial published an article named Ding Ha's Watercolor Painting and his watercolor paintings "Waves" and "Rosa Chinensis".

On September 17th Xizang Daily published some photos depicting that Ha and his students from the Zang nationality in training classes were painting from nature with a few words under photos: "Ding Ha, who is a painter from Shanghai Painting and Calligraphy Academy, has his time in Tibet".

In November, Jieren Xu wrote an article "The Paintings that Ding Ha Produced in the Past 5 Years, An Authentically Artistic Presentation of Our Motherland" and the article was published on Wen Hui Daily. Other two sketches "Zang Opera" and "The Biggest Temple in Tibet- the Zhebeng Temple" were also published.

Wen Hui Daily published Ha's sketch "Jokhang Temple" on November 6th.

His watercolor painting "The Golden Pond" was published on China Report.

1984 61 years old

The watercolor painting "Sceneries of Border Areas" was selected for the 6th National Exhibition of Art.

The Collection of Ding Ha's Watercolor Paintings was published by Beijing Foreign Language Press and also on Jiangsu Pictorial Magazine as specials.

"Sceneries of Border Areas" and "The Roof of the World" was collected by The National Art Museum of China.

"The Sceneries of Prairies" was collected by Shanghai Art Museum.

1985 62 years old

On June 1st, 1985, Jieren Xu posted a news report "I Am Eager to Get Close to Life -

Great Achievement was made by Ding Ha in Rural and Border Areas” on Wen Hui Daily.

The book Watercolor Painting Skills was published by China Artists Association, Shanghai Branch. The bimonthly magazine The Breeze in Spring published The Collection of Ding Ha's Watercolor Paintings.

The Picture Album of Ding Ha was published by People's Fine Art Press. The preface was written by Peng Shen, the vice president of China Federation of Literary and Art Circles.

1986 63 years old

Ha made his trip to four African countries by invitation and gave some lectures in the beginning of the year. Meanwhile, he held several painting and calligraphy exhibitions as well.

On January 25th, the local Chinese Press in Mauritius published the article “Two Famous Chinese Painters Will Visit Us Tomorrow and the Exhibition Will be Opened on Next Wednesday.”

On 30th, this local Chinese Press further reported the news that the Minister of Education attended the opening ceremony of the exhibition of dozens of Chinese paintings made by two outstanding Chinese painters who arrived at Mauritius and received great comments.

An itinerant exhibition of paintings made by Ding Ha and Chensheng Dong was held in Madagascar, Seychelles, Mauritius and the Ile De La Reunion area, an overseas province of France. There were 40 paintings from Ha.

All newspapers in these places published articles and photos about the event and pictures made by Ding Ha and Chensheng Dong, introducing them and their exhibition.

On May 8th, People's Daily published Ha's two sketches made in Seychelles and Ile De La Reunion area with the name of “The Sketches Made in Africa”.

May 29th, Wei Hui Daily published two of his sketches.

From July to October, Ding Ha spent three months for painting in Dunhuang, Gansu and Xinjiang with other painters from Shanghai Oil Painting and Sculpture Academy. On Oct 22nd, Kashgar Daily published an article named The Famous Painter of Hui Nationality Spent Months in Our Region.

The watercolor painting The Market in Madagascar was selected for National Exhibition of Poster Paintings and Watercolor Paintings.

The Picture Album of Ding Ha was published by the Peoples Fine Arts Press.

The watercolor painting The Flowers on the Plateau of Pamirs was collected by Shanghai Art Museum.

1987 64 years old

In March, Wen Hui Monthly published an article named Ha's Days in Africa with two of his watercolor paintings made in Africa. On May 22nd, the column The Writers in Wen Hui Daily published an article, written by Ding Ha, named "Perusing the Good Things in Life". In June, Ta Kung Daily in HK published a special coverage named Yemin Zhong Ding Ha's Friendship Brought By Paintings in HK by Zhongmin Ye. On June 19th, New Evening Post (HK) published an article named From Teaching to Painting, His Art Experience in His Own Words written by Hanru Jiang. In August, Mingpao Monthly (Volume. 260) published Ha's article My Watercolor Paintings with other 14 paintings. Artist (HK) published an article named Appreciating Ding Ha's Watercolor Paintings written by Zhenzhi He, a commentator in art as well as other 14 paintings. The oil painting The Roof of the World was published by China Daily.

The oil paintings The Fall and The Roof of the World were selected for the The Exhibition of Chinese Contemporary Oil Painting, which was organized by China Artists Association and GHK from April 1st to 20th in NYC.

The watercolor paintings The Waves and The Buddhism Horn were selected for The International Exhibition on Watercolor Paintings 1987, which was organized by The Royal Watercolor Society in London.

1988 65 years old

The watercolor paintings Palio and Scenery in Border Areas were selected for The International Exhibition on Watercolor Paintings 1988, which was organized by The Royal Watercolor Society in London.

The watercolor painting The Market in Madagascar was selected for The Exhibition of Chinese Watercolor Painting, which was organized by a Chinese foreign exhibition company. The exhibition was held in Kuwait and North Korea.

Jointly organized by Shanghai Oil Painting and Sculpture Academy, Shanghai Cultural Development Foundation, Shanghai Municipal Administration of Cultural Affairs and Shanghai Art Museum, Ding Ha's Individual Exhibition was held at Shanghai Art Museum from September 30th to October 8th. There were 140 items presented including his sketches, watercolor paintings and oil paintings. On October 1st, Jiefang Daily, Wen Hui Daily, Xinming Evening Post and other newspapers with high circulation all reported the news of the ceremony. Morning Flower, a column on Jiefang Daily published the article Ding Ha's Watercolor Paintings with one of his watercolor paintings The Daughter of Pamir. Lijian, a reporter of Xinming Evening Post, wrote an article named Pursuing Colors for 50 Years: An Interview with Ding Ha and put his watercolor painting The Central Mall next to it.

On Oct 12th, Zhenzhi He wrote an article on Wen Hui Daily named The 40 Years of Ding Ha's Painting.

On Oct 23rd, Keren Xu wrote an article on Xinmin Evening Post named Painting on the Roof of the World and published his painting Temple and a photo taken when Ha was instructing the students.

On Oct 26th Ha's watercolor painting The Town of Luzhi was published in the special column of Bihui.

The critique The Golden Pond, which is co-authored by Weiyu Wu and Shan Su, was published on Tourism (Shanghai).

Elementary Watercolor Painting Skills was published by Shanghai People's Art Press.

1989 66 years old

The watercolor painting The Flowers on Pamirs was selected for The 7th National Exhibition of Art.

On Oct 22nd, Jihan Liu wrote an article named Wealth Thrives the Home and Moral Thrives the Body, an Interview with the Famous Watercolor Painter Ding Ha on Luoyang Daily. He indicated that "Very few well-achieved mature artists did not benefit from How to: Portrait Painting and How to: Pencil Drawing, the two books written by Ding Ha". These two books were published in the 1950s and were the bestsellers at that time. Ding Ha used to be someone whose name was known by everyone in the art area."

In the same year, with their daughter's arrangement, Mr. and Mrs. Ha settled down in America.

1990 67 years old

Guanyun Ou wrote on Xinmin Evening Post about Zhenya Xia's words on watercolor painting. Xia said "Ha's watercolor portrait paintings contain extensive details, dense colors that are similar to oil paintings".

1991 68 years old

Watercolor painting Lama Musician, Palio (one and two), Hard-working Tibetan Girls and Chinese Roses.

1992 69 years old

From July 23rd to August 13th, Ha had his individual water color painting exhibition in Moros Studio Gallery, LA.

On July 11th World Daily (CA) headlined the news Exhibition of Ding Ha's Oil Paintings, for 3 Weeks from 23rd and posted a photo in which Ding Ha was standing in front of his paintings. On the same day, International Daily also headlined an article named Ding Ha's works, a Tour of all Nationalities in China. Sing Tao Daily reported an article Ding Ha's Paintings Made in the Past 50 Years in Border Areas, the Passion Shown on Every Piece.

1993 70 years old

The watercolor painting Palio (I and II), Hard-working Tibetan Girls and The Dialogue were selected for The Exhibition of Watercolor Painting 1993, which was organized by the Royal Watercolor Society in London.

The series of Palio was published by RA Magazine

On its 30th Anniversary, the National Art Museum of China held an exhibition of selected collections. Sceneries of Border Areas was selected for the display.

1994 71 years old

Palio III, The Sunshine in the Early Morning

1995 72 years old

The Sunshine in the Early Morning was selected for the exhibition The Hometown, the Paintings made by 100 Overseas Chinese, which was jointly organized by Shanghai Pudong Administration of Social Development and Shanghai Artists Association.

1996 73 years old

The exhibition Watermarks was held in California and Ding Ha's painting such as Shared Happiness with Pigeons, A Tibetan Old Man, Band in Classics, The Dialogue and A Senior Herd were displayed on the event.

Four pieces of Ha's watercolor paintings have been recorded by Complete Works of Chinese Modern Fine Arts (Watercolor): The Streamside in Summer, Sceneries of Border Areas, The Bright Sunshine and Palio II.

Ding Ha's work The Rising up of Shanghai was awarded with a big prize in the exhibition of watercolor painting I Love Shanghai, which was jointly organized by The Information Office of the Shanghai City Hall and Shanghai Artists Association. Later this watercolor painting was collected by the Municipal Government of Shanghai.

This glorious event was widely reported by newspapers such as Wen Hui Daily and Xinmin Evening Post on February 13th. Jing Li from Xinmin Evening Post had an exclusive interview with Ding Ha.

From February 17th to 23rd, Ding Ha's Palio was displayed on The 4th Watercolor Exhibition of Shanghai Art, which was jointly organized by Shanghai Watercolor Painting Research Association and Shanghai Art Museum.

March 26th, Jinde Lu made comments on Ha's newly finished work Palio in his article Ding Ha's Watercolor Painting on Xinmin Evening Post.

1999 76 years old

Ha's work The Rising up of Shanghai joined The Exhibition of Shanghai Watercolor Painting held in Chicago, Los Angeles and other places.

2000 77 years old

The Collection of Ding Ha's Painting was published by Shanghai People's Press and the preface was written by Charles Bonn, the former Chairman of the Royal Watercolor Society of the UK.

2002 79 years old

The premiere of The Collection of Ding Ha's Painting was held in New Jersey.

Since the middle of the 1980s, especially after settling in the US, Ha did art creation while studied Buddhism with all his heart. His works' focus has gradually moved to the expression of the pure nature and the truth, the kind, the beauty of life.

2003

Ha passed away on July 3rd in a hospital in Los Angeles at the age of 80.

On July 12th, his funeral was held at Rose Hills Mortuary Sky Rose Chapel in Los Angeles. The representative from the Consulate of P.R.C. in Los Angeles attended and addressed on the funeral.